THE SILVER CRANKS ARE STILL TALKING

MEMPHIS CONVENTION CONTINUES ITS LABORS.

Senator Stewart Makes the Speech of the Day In Arraignment of Our Present Financial Policy—Resolutions Are Unanimously Adopted In Regard to Spreading the Doctrine.

Memphis, Tenn., June 14.—The second day's session of the silver convention opened yesterday with no sign of a diminution in the supply of speeches. The attendance was almost up to the first day. At 10:15 o'clock Rev. Dr. Brooks of Memphis opened the convention with prayer, after which the arrival of delegates from Arizona and one from Arkansas was announced. Chairman Turpie then announced that the committee on resolutions was not ready to report, and introduced Senator William M. Stewart of Nevada, who addressed the convention in part as follows:

"The object lessons of the last three years show that the American people are face to face with concentrated capital, the enemy which destroyed all previous civilizations. A shrinking volume of money as compared with population and business produces falling prices, paralyzes industry and compels the producers of wealth to pawn their property to continue the struggle against impending fate. The vast bonded debts of the United States and Europe have passed through the hands of the Rothschild combination for nearly a century, and the increment retained by them alone independent of their numerous associates, is estimated at $2,000,000,000. This combination robbed the United States of gold to convert the silver debt of Austria into gold obligations and made $400,000,000 in the transaction. By this means the great combination wrecked the finances of this country and caused the panic in 1893."

The senator said the present lull in the financial storm had been purchased by our government with the last issue of bonds. He declared nine-tenths of the people of the country were in favor of the free coinage of silver. Continuing, he said: "The people have at last taken this matter into their own hands. The democracy of Illinois has broken the ice. The advocates of free coinage at 16 to 1 by the United States alone comprise three-fourths of the voters of the United States. The only hope for gold monopoly is to divide and conquer. They have played that game for the last time. Whatever politicians and timeservers may do, the south and west and all lovers of free institutions everywhere will come together and rescue this government from the rule of the gold kings. * * If the people submit to financial bondage and lose their liberty, they will have been warned in time. The gold standard, falling prices, and hard times are as much the policy of the republicans as of the democrats."

When the convention was called to order for the afternoon session Senator Jones of Arkansas, as chairman, presented the report of the committee on resolutions, which was unanimously adopted. The resolutions advocate the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, declare that international co-operation is not necessary, and attribute the recent hard times entirely to the demonetization of silver. They continue:

"Be lieving that it is absolutely necessary to reverse the present iniquitous and ruinous financial policy, we therefore resolve

"That we favor the immediate restoration of silver to its former place as a full legal tender, standard money, equal with gold, and the free and unlimited coinage of both silver and gold at the ratio of 16 to 1 and upon terms of exact equality.

"That while we should welcome the co-operation of other nations, we believe the United States should not wait upon the co-operation of other governments or the pleasure of creditors, but should themselves proceed to reverse the "grinding process" that is destroying the prosperity of the people, and should lead by their example the nations of the earth.

"That the rights of the American people, that the interests of American labor, and the prosperity of American industry have a higher claim to the consideration of the people's law-makers than the greed of foreign creditors, or the avaricious demands by "idle holders of idle capital." The right to regulate its own people is right which no free government can barter, sell or surrender. This reserved right is a part of every bond, of every contract, and of every obligation. No creditor or claimant can set up a right that can take precedence over a nation's obligation to promote the welfare of the masses of its own people. This is a debt higher and more binding than all other debts and one which it is not only dishonest, but treasonable to ignore.

"We therefore appeal to the plain people of the land, with perfect confidence in their patriotism and intelligence, to arolse themselves to a full sense of the peril that confronts them and defend the citadel of their liberties with a vigilance which shall neither slumber nor sleep."

to a full sense of the peril that confronts them and defend the citadel of their liberties with a vigilance which shall neither slumber nor sleep."

The following resolution was also presented and adopted:

"Resolved, That a committee composed of one member from each state be appointed by the delgates thereof in this convention, whose duty it shall be to correspond with the representatives and advocates of bimetallism and bimetallic societies in the different states of the union, and devise measures to advance the cause of bimetallism throughout the United States. This committee shall have power to call a national conference of bimetallists whenever, in the opinion of the committee, the cause of bimetallism can be advanced thereby. Said committee shall have power to fill all vacancies."

The platform as it was originally intended it should not, the call being strictly non-partisan, contains no mention of any party. The convention adjourned after speeches by W. J. Bryan, A. J. Warner and Senator Wolcott of Indiana.

FAVORS HOMESTEADERS.

Important Decision by Secretary Smith as to Land Payments.

Washington, June 14.—Secretary Hoke Smith has rendered a decision that will be of interest to many Western homesteaders. The case in question was that of J. A. Wells of the Alliance land district, Nebraska, who requested an extension of time for making payment on his preemption claim. The land office refused the request on the ground that such extension could be granted only in cases where inability to pay existed by reason of failure of crops. In his decision Secretary Smith reversed this ruling, and calls attention to a recent act of congress which extends the time of final payment for ten year in cases where the entryman is unable to make payment on account of any cause which he is unable to control.

St. Louis Wants Conventions.

St. Louis, Mo., June 14.—The Business Men's League of this city has unanimously resolved to make an effort to obtain for St. Louis the national convention of both the Democratic and Republican parties in 1896. Communication will be opened with each member of both the national committees and the support of several members has already been secured. Ample funds will be vailable for taking care of both conventions.

No Alliance with America Wanted.

Colon, Colombia, June 14.—El Porvenier, a Carthagena newspaper, a semi-official organ, considers the sole guarantee by the United States of the neutrality of the isthmus dangerous and urges that one be formed jointly with France. It also advocates forts at the ends of the Nicaragua canal, manned by Colombin forces. The newspaper expresses itself as being alarmed at late events in Nicaragua.

New Jersey Prohibitionists.

New York, June 14.—Henry W. Wilber of Vineland was yesterday nominated for governor by the Prohibition convention at Newark. He is 50 years old and editor of the Outlook of Vineland. The platform as adopted declares against the liquor traffic, in favor of woman suffrage, arbitration between employers and employes and denounces both the Democratic and Republican party for mismanaging state affairs.

Ten Per Cent Increase.

Birmingham, Ala., June 14.—The Howard Harrison Iron Company, operating the largest iron pipe works in the South, at Bessemer, employing 1,500 men, has posted notice that the wages of employes will be increased 10 per cent after June 15. The advance is voluntary. This is the second large iron company to advance wages in this district within a week.

Forest Fires Still Burning.

Bradford, Pa., June 14.—Last night at 12 o'clock word came from Simpson stating that the forest fires were dangerously near to the wells of Urquhart and Lavens and that it would be difficult to save the property from destruction. Yesterday a force of 150 men had a hard fight with the fire near Lafayette Corners. Fires are reported from various other parts.

Negroes Form a Lynching Party.

Topeka, Kan., June 14.—W. H. Ballard, a white man, was arrested near Atchison for assaulting a colored girl 15 years old named Davis. A crowd of negroes organized for the purpose of storming the Atchison jail, but the leader was threatened with arrest and promised not to attempt to lynch Ballard. Guards have been placed in the jail and no trouble is expected.

BOLD THIEF WORKED AT TUCKER, TEXAS

MADE A MAIL CLERK JUMP FROM A TRAIN.

Robber Boarded a Great Northern Passenger Last Night and Secured Eight Registered Packages—Chicago Police Looking For a Fiend—Criminal News.

Galveston, June 14.—A robber entered the mail car on the Great Northern road at Tucker last night and compelled the mail clerk to jump from the train. The robber then got eight registered packages and escaped. The mail clerk was dangerously injured.

Chicago, June 14.—Thirteen-year-old Annie Brennan is lying at the home of her parents in a critical condition as a result of the horrible work of a fiend, for whom, if the girl's story is true, the gallows would be a mercy.

Annie's parents are poor and yesterday she was sent out to look for work. When she reached Van Buren and Aberdeen streets she met a man who appeared to be more than 30 years of age at least. She accosted him, asking him if he could direct her to an intelligence office where she might possibly find work. The man replied that he would give her work. He was looking for help in his home, he told her, and if she would accompany him he would take her there immediately. She went with the man, and after a long ride on the electric cars they came to a narrow strip of woods near the village of Maywood. Here they alighted, and he complained of being tired, and asked her if she wouldn't go into the grove and sit in the shade for a few minutes. She readily consented, fearing nothing wrong. Then the man drew a bottle from his pocket and asked her if she would have some refreshment. She refused, she says, but he insisted that she drink and finally she took a swallow reluctantly. Inside a few minutes the girl had lost all consciousness, and for hours she remained under the trees in a dead sleep. It was 4 o'clock in the afternoon, six or seven hours later, when Annie awoke. Then she felt dazed, and it was some time before she could realize where she was. Her companion was gone. She was in great pain and exhausted. Her clothes were torn and her face and neck scratched and bleeding. Half a dozen times she tried to rise to her feet and sank down on the ground again. She lay there suffering for half an hour, at the end of which time she managed to drag herself to a house not far away, where she was cared for, and finally sent home. Physicians say she may die. A good description of Annie's fiendish assailant was obtained by the police, and they are on the lookout for him.

CAPTURED A SKILLED FORGER

The New York Police Made An Important Arrest Yesterday.

New York, June 14.—Albert S. Moore, a forger whose career has been short but meteoric, is in the Tombs. Skilled and experienced bank officials had passed his notes without question for months till a day or two ago, when one of them became suspicious, and the truth about this slick young man was suddenly revealed.

Moore's stealings amount to at least $100,000. He was for years a bookkeeper for Inman, Swann & Co. in the Cotton Exchange building. Last November he was discharged for speculating in the street. He then became treasurer for the East River Silk company, which has works near Astoria, L. I. Robert W. Inman, of the firm of Inman, Swann & Co. was for a time the president of the silk company. Possibly with the idea of getting back at Mr. Inman, Moore began his work and forged the signature of the firm to notes to the silk company amounting to $32,000, and sold them to various banks of this city. Moore saw that his work was rewarded with success, so he forged Robert W. Inman's name to $30,000 of the notes and the signature of John Menke to $41,000 of them.

President Hendricks, of the National Union bank, became suspicious of one of the signatures of Inman, Swann & Co., and investigation proved it to be fraudulent. Moore's arrest immediately followed.

Moore is about 36 years of age. He is a member of the Presbyterian church and the superintendent of a Harlem Sunday-school.

These banks hold the forged paper: Bank of America, United States National, National Union, Bank of New York, and the Southern National. Moore was arraigned at the Tombs Police court and remanded until this afternoon.

Attempt to Wreck a Train.

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 14.—A daring attempt was made by desperadoes to wreck a Louisville and Nashville passenger train, carrying the pay car, containing $50,000, yesterday near Visalia, Ky., only a short distance back of Covington. Ties were placed across the rails just a few yards from the approach to a high trestle, down which it was evidently expected the train would plunge to destruction. A freight train from Covington pulled down the road shortly after 10 o'clock and found the track at Vilalia entirely clear. The passenger train carrying the money followed a few minutes later and, while running at a slow rate, ran into the obstruction on the track, but fortunately escaped derailment.

WHISKY TRUST DEFEATED.

Adverse Decision Rendered by Illinois Supreme Court.

Springfield, Ill., June 14.—The decision handed down by the supreme court yesterday in the Whisky trust case, in which the decision of the Cook county court declaring the trust illegal, is affirmed, is one of the strongest arraignments of combinations for the purpose of cornering or controlling prices in products ever promulgated by any court. The language is of no uncertain character, and has given Attorney-General Moloney and his assistants much satisfaction. The principle of corporation and trusts of this character is hit hard by the court, and the attorney-general feels that the principles underlying the decision are broad enough to include the Pullman company. He feels that the adverse decision in the Pullman case will be reversed on reaching the Illinois supreme court. The decision in the Whisky trust case is thought to end the career of that monopoly.

RACE WAR THREATENED.

South Carolina Negroes Angry Over Registration Decision.

Abbeville, S. C., June 14.—Telegrams from Mount Carmel tell of a threatened race war. On Saturday Doc Sanders, a notd desperado, was killed by T. G. Baker and John A. Tarrant while resisting arrest. He opened fire on them and they shot him down. Sanders was a negro leader, and the negroes threaten war. The authorities of Mount Carmel have appealed to the governor for help and he has ordered the Abbeville Rifles to the scene. That section of the country is thickly settled with negroes, and if there is an uprising there will be grave trouble. The registration decision has intensified the feelings of the blacks toward the whites.

Colima Survivor Ill Treated.

San Francisco, June 14.—At the federal investigation into the foundering of the steamer Colima near Manzanillo, May 27, Gustave Rowan, one of the surviving passengers, was the principal witness. In his opinion the Colima was overloaded, top-heavy, and her deck load of freight poorly placed. He says the lumber on deck was not lashed and so it was moved every time the ship listed. The witness complained bitterly of his treatment on the San Juan after he was picked up. He says he was refused proper food and medical attention.

Cleveland, June 14.—The Cleveland Rolling Mill company yesterday posted notices to the effect that the wages of all the laborers and mechanics employed in the works would be raised after Saturday next. Butte, Neb., June 14.—The attorney-general yesterday filed a motion for continuance in the case of the alleged lynchers of Barrett Scott. He asked that it be carried over until next fall. Rockford, Ill., June 14.—In the Circuit court yesterday attorneys for George Jacob Schweinfurth alleged that they had new grounds for quashing the indictments against the messiah and asked Judge Shaw to reopen the case. MANITOBA WILL NOT YIELD.

Its Stand on the Catholic School Question Clearly Stated.

Winnipeg, Man., June 14.—The Manitoba legislature reassembled yesterday. The first business was the consideration of the mandate of the dominion government issued some months ago ordering the province to restore the separate school system as it existed prior to 1890. Attorney General Sefton gave notice of a resolution which takes the form of a memorial to the governor general in council at Ottawa, of which the following is a synopsis:

It points out that to obey the order would be to restore the defective and pernicious school system as it existed in olden time, and thus render it impossible ever to maintain an efficient public school system, as Icelanders, Mennonites, Anglicans and others might demand separate schools if they were conceded to the Catholics. The memorial then says: "We are therefore compelled to respectfully state to your excellency in council that we can not accept the responsibility of carrying into effect the terms of the remedial order." An intimation is given that the province will resist any legislation passed by the dominion authorities to restore the Catholic schools, and strong arguments are offered to show that under the first decision of the privy council Manitoba can not be interfered with in the exercise of its jurisdiction in educational affairs.

Rockefeller Beaten.

Duluth, Minn., June 14.—Last evening the federal jury in the $1,250,000 suit of Alfred Merritt vs. John D. Rockefeller, the Standard Oil king, after having been out five hours, returned a verdict of $940,000 for the plaintiff. The Merritts alleged that Rockefeller and his agents had frozen them out of a profitable concern by fraudulent representation. There is a large family of the Merritts, most of whom were induced to enter the consolidation, and in a short time suits aggregating $2,000,000 more will be brought on the same basis.

Against International Conference.

Berlin, June 14.—The National Zeitung says that replies have now been received by the government from the majority of the federal governments to the former's inquiry regarding the expediency of an international conference for the settlement of the currency question. It is added that while several answers do not imply opposition to the proposal, not one of them manifests a real desire to a conference. The replies, it appears, generally indicate a conviction that such a meeting will be fruitless.

Hold a Church with Rifles.

Little Rock, Ark., June 14.—A disgraceful church row is now going on between two factions in the Second Baptist (colored) church at Helena, this state. One faction is holding the building through the assistance of a constable and several Winchester rifles. The white people of the town have petitioned the authorities to declare the church a nuisance.

Important Question Settled in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 14.—By a decision of the state supreme court yesterday, the control of the two state prisons passes to the republicans and the court definitely fixes the power of the governor in making appointments to office. Upholds Indiana Tax Law.

Denver, June 14.—The synod of the Reformed Presbyterians adjourned at midnight last night and most of the delegates went on a trip to Pike's Peak. The committee on temperance reported very strong resolutions against the sale or use of liquors and tobacco and the report was adopted unanimously. The government of the United States was condemned for countenancing the liquor traffic and the sale of narcotics. The report of the committee on Sabbath observation condemned Sunday mails, transportation, newspapers, street cars and all kinds of work, also the tendency to turn the day into an occasion for merry-making. The appropriations adopted footed up about $60,000.

A BIG CLASS ENDED THEIR SCHOOL WORK

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES HELD YESTERDAY.

Orations a Credit to the Pupils and the Schools—Senior Class Concert Last Night Not Up to Grade and Was a Great Disappointment—School for the Blind Program.

As was briefly announced in The Gazette last night the graduating exercises of the Janesville High school were held at the Myers Grand yesterday afternoon and the public did themselves proud. Music by the Columbian Male Quartette opened the program and was followed by a prayer by Rev. Dr. M. G. Hodge.

Miss Martha Shopbell's oration was the first one that the audience heard and her subject was "A Plea for the Graduates' Oration." She held that the influence was good and that the idea of orations should not be abandoned. High and noble sentiments were thus aroused and the enthusiasm so awakened might help the pupil to attain the object sought. Miss Shopbell made an excellent impression on her audience and was warmly complimented.

"Cranks" was the short and sharp title that Miss Eleanor Walsh choose for her oration, but she did not use the word in the ordinary sense, but held that all great men were cranks, and that individualism was what counted. The man who followed the impulses of his conscience rarely failed. "Crank" she argued was another name for "genius." Her oration was skillfully and entertainingly combined and was listened to with marked attention.

"The Bread and Butter Question," or "Brod and Butter Wissenchaften," as it was printed in German, was the theme upon which Miss Alice Williams spoke, and her effort won for her deserved praise. A practical education was the surest means of solving the all important problem, she held, and in that connection manual training was more valuable than ancient history. Miss Williams' oration showed depth of thought as well as a fund of practical ideas, and her effort was heartily commended.

"The Essence of Progress" was the theme of Miss Laverna Gillies' essay. "Find out what your neighbors want you to do and do it," she argued, was the motto of progress. Isolation gave security, but association developed advancement, she affirmed, and the principle of human independence should be recognized that the world might become one large neighborhood. Her subject was well handled and showed much careful preparation as well as many sound ideas.

"The Music of the World" was Miss Marie McClernan's subject and she surprised her audience most agreeably. The music of kind words was the sweetest music of all, she insisted, and they should be cultivated as the ability to play heart strings was worth acquiring and an accomplishment that would improve the world. Miss McClernan's oration was exceptionally good and won for her justly bestowed praise.

"The True Reform" was the practical subject chosen by Ellsworth J. Owen and his well-worded composition was most effectually delivered. The voter should be swayed more by education and less by the demagogic whip-cord, he argued, and until ignorance was overcome by knowledge and thoughtlessness gave way to study, there could be no genuine reform. Mr. Owen's address showed careful preparation and practical thought and his utterances were much to his credit.

"Thought, the Measure of the Man," was the subject of Miss LuElla Davey's oration; but owing to a recent illness, she was excused from delivering it, and the audience did not hear an essay, which, judging by the well chosen idea, would have been very interesting.

"Are Men the Masters of Their Fate?" was the question that Miss Etta Zache asked and answered. She held that they were not, because man, with his limited powers, could not see the results. The Divine Providence was the ruler of fate. Miss Zache's excellent delivery added much to the charm of a well written and thoughtful paper.

"Man His Own Star" was Miss Eliza Stoddard's theme and she took grounds diametrically opposite from Miss Zache. Genius, she argued was the power of making efforts and efforts properly made would surmount all difficulties. To be a greater circumstance was the true way to conquer circumstances, an argument that, she held, the lives of all great men had confirmed. Miss Stoddard's oration showed that she had looked upon her theme with a practical eye and had builded her assertions on a solid foundation of reason.

"Jingoism" was the compact title of E mund Enright's oration and he presented his arguments in a most interesting way. Jingoism, he held, was false patriotism. What was needed was the deep, loyal feeling that arose above mere spectacular cant, was the idea he advanced, and his most excellent oration was warmly commended, showing as it did, careful preparation, deep study, and a grasp of causes and effects that was broad and understanding.

"Limitations" was the subject around which Miss Katherine Wiggins builded her arguments. The limit of a man's idea was the limit of his success, she said, and no man could attain perfection. While many great discoveries had been made, there was a limit to all things. Miss Wiggins showed that she was possessed of a keen observation and a faculty for deduction, while her excellent delivery was very effective.

Her oration was the last on the programme, and after Prof. Mayne had presented the class to the audience, T. W. Goldin, as president of the board of education, distributed the diplomas. Each "sheepskin" was tied with a blue ribbon, and the names of each recipient had been inscribed on the roll in a most artistic manner by Miss Alice Williams. An informal reception followed and the members of the class were warmly congratulated by their friends.

THE SENIOR CLASS CONCERT.

Rather Under The Average Entertainment Was a Disappointment Last Night.

The only event connected with the commencement week exercises was the senior class concert given by the Chicago Columbia quartette, Miss Mary Davis, violinist and Henry Robson guitarist. While Miss Davis was quite a capable violinist and Mr. Robson did fairly well, they were not the high class performers that people had expected to hear, and the quartette was a grievous failure. While the applause was liberal, it was not of the hearty sort, but rather of the "well-this-is-a-graduation-day-concert-and-we-must-not-slight-them" kind. The program was as follows:

"Loyal Song".....Kuecken

FULTON WOMEN HAVE AN ACCIDENT

Runaway Team Wrecked the Cart In Which They Were Riding.

FULTON, June 14—What came near proving a fatal accident occurred to Mrs. Murwin and Josie Brown while in Edgerton last Saturday afternoon. They were in a cart and ready to start for home when a span of horses came dashing down the street and ran into the back of the cart upsetting the vehicle and throwing its occupants out. Miss Brown was not injured although she was severly shaken up, but Mrs. Murwin did not escape so easily. She has been confined to the house and bed since but as no bones were broken it is hoped she will soon be out again. The team was owned by Mr. Caldwell who lives two miles north of Edgerton and they escaped without harm. The cart the ladies were in was a total wreck and the harness was broken, but that they had escaped with their lives is one of the miracle as all who saw the accident stood spell bound expecting to see them dashed to pieces. There will be no services at the church next Sunday. Oliver Murwin has been quite sick the past week. Mrs. W. H. Pease went to Janesville Tuesday, to be present at Emma Hill's wedding. Mrs. Myra Mole of Janesville, visited her brother Orson Coon and family, last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gilbertson of Janesville were very pleasant callers upon Mrs. Mary Murwin last Monday. William Rice of Cooksville was in town last Friday shaking hands with many of his old friends. Mrs. Ed Jessup and Mrs. Mary Murwin passed last Thursday in Janesville, the guest of Stanley Jessup and family and a very enjoyable time was had by all. Rev, E. M. Dunn of Milton, will fill the pulpit one week from Sunday. All invited to come. Miss Lucy Page attended the state convention of the W. C. T. U. at Fond du Lac, as a delegate from the Fulton and Ford societies. An-TenEyck from the town of Center, passed several day's of last week with his daughter, Mrs. Brown, returning home Sunday. Misses Bentley and Fields of Cedar Falls, Iowa, are here visiting friends and relatives Mrs. Charlie Dodge, who has been confined to the house is gaining fast and her many friends rejoice in consequence. Our Sunday school will attend the convention which will be held in Cooksville next Sunday. All are most cordially invited to go and help in the uplifting of the bible work which is most needed in many ways. Mrs. Gracie Fessenden and daughter Maud will leave here next Monday for their futnre home in Iowa, where Orrie has secured a place. Their many friends will miss them very much but all will wish them success and much happiness in their new home. The ladies of the W. C. T. U of Fulton and Ford Unions, met with Mrs. L. H. Page Wednesday afternoon and a pleasant social time was had by all present. Light refreshments were served and Miss Lucie K. Page gave a full report of the convention and its doings at Fond du Lac. The Beloit Academy Quartette will give a concert in the church on Friday evening, June 21. All lovers of good music should be present for it will be a real treat to hear them, as they are said to be fine. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Forest Fessenden, June 1, a six pound girl. Mother and babe doing well. A new girl at John Oberge's, born last Tuesday afternoon. Rain is needed in this vicinity very much. If we do not get it before long there will not be much tobacco set and pastures will be of little use, as they are very dry now. The farmers and everyone else are wishing for rain.

TOOK WEDDING VOWS AT CUPID'S ALTAR

THE WINSEY-HILL NUPTIALS LAST EVENING.

The Superintendent of Appleton's City Schools, Marries a Janesville Girl—Miss Ryan Pleasantly Surprised—Hurd Wixom's Birthday Celebrated—School Children's Picnic.

A very pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hill, 101 Washington street, last evening, the contracting parties being Prof. William P. Winsey, of Appleton, and Miss Emma P. Hill, daughter of the host and hostess. Vines, smilax potted plants and cut flowers were used profusely in the docorations and at 6:30 o'clock Mendelssohn's wedding march struck up. Little Margaret Samuels and Garrett Veeder came first, followed by the ushers, Willis C. Otis and Webster H. Hill. Then came the bridesmaids, Miss Lillian Otis, of this city, and Miss Basha Pease of Fulton, with the maid of honor, Miss Anna Brown of Beloit, and last but not, by any means least, the bride. The groom and groomsman, Mr. Salisbury of Whitewater, stood before a large floral altar surmounted by a floral leaf and behind the railing of the altar stood the officiating clergyman, Rev. W. F. Brown of Beloit, he being assisted in the ceremony by Rev. E. H. Pence of the Presbyterian church.

After the ceremony and the congratulations the wedding supper was served under the direction of G. A. Shurtleff in a large tent on the lawn, the tables being presided over by a number of young ladies. Music was furnished by the Whitewater Mandolin orchestra, an organization composed of friends of the contracting parties and they played delightfully. The 9:30 train carried Prof. and Mrs. Winsey went to Madison, and after a four weeks' wedding trip they will return to Appleton, which city will be their future home.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hill, and is a young lady well and favorably known; while the groom is the superintendent of the city schools at Appleton, and stands very high personally and professionally. Many friends will extend their hearty congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Winsey, and wish them all the good things that can be crowded into a long life.

Among those present from abroad were Mr. and Mrs. Pomeroy, Edgerton; Mrs. Hazard, Miss Hazard and Miss Rice, of Whitewater; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lee, Evansville; William Lee, Mabel Lee, Mrs. Kate Sayre, Mrs. W. H. Pease, Mrs. F. H. Pease, Mrs. H. A. Well filled lunch baskets were numerous and a pleasant day was spent upon the shores of Clear Lake.

ONE DISEASE AND ONE REMEDY.

"The art of painting," said Millais, consists of selecting the right colors and putting them in the right place." "The way to win a battle," said Napoleon, "is to mass your troops at the critical moment against the weakest spot in the enemy's line." "The way to cure many ailments" said the great Dr. Abercrombie "is to purify the poisoned spring in which they arise, generally the torpid and inflamed digestive system."

Thus wisdom and experience simplify and condense. Thus the Shakers of Mount Lebanon reasoned when they sought and finally found a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. Where one person has something else, they argued, a thousand have this. To cure this alone will almost rid the world of sickness. Why should we vex ourselves with confusing definitions? A good digestion is life and health, a bad one disease and death. Hence, from the healing and stimulating mountain herbs, they extracted the principles which make the Shaker Digestive Cordial the rarest and most effective of medicines for one disease and one only—indigestion and dyspepsia.

Do you suffer from any of these miserable feelings?—depression of spirits, heaviness and pain in the stomach after meals, bad taste in the mouth, wind in the bowels, irritable disposition, nervous weakness and alarm, worry and weariness, costiveness or irregularity of the bowels, nausea, palpitation, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite and sleep, dry skin, etc?

Don't indulge in fifty foolish fancies. You have indigestion and nothing else. Set the disordered stomach right with the one medicine which will surely do it, Shakers Digestive Cordial, and these symptoms will vanish with their cause. A good effect will follow the first doses. Even chronic cases soon yield.

Test the cordial, at practically no cost, by taking a ten-cent bottle. For sale by nearly all druggists.

Eight Days Without Winding.

A Cincinnati paper reports that the agent of a clock dealer in that city called one day on a good German citizen of the "Over-the-Rhine" district and endeavored to sell him an eight-day clock.

"My dear sir," said the salesman, "this is a remarkable clock. It is not only beautiful, but it is most useful. Why, this clock will run eight days without winding."

The Only Remedy in the World that Refunds Purchase Price if it Fails to Cure the Tobacco Habit in 4 to 10 Days is

Narcoti-Cure

It Cures while You Continue the Use of Tobacco.

The greatest discovery of the age!

A certain, pleasant, permanent cure.

A lifetime's suffering ended for $5.

Why smoke and spit your life away? Why suffer from dyspepsia, heartburn and drains on your vital forces?

Stop using tobacco, but stop the right way

Drive the nicotine from your system by use of this wonderful remedy.

Narcoti cure is warranted to remove all desire for tobacco in every form, including Cigar, Cigarette and Pipe smoking, Chewing and Snuff Taking.

Use all the tobacco you want while under treatment, and in from four to ten days your "hankering" and "craving" will disappear—the weed won't taste good.

Then throw away tobacco forever.

Narcoti-Cure is entirely vegetable and free from injurious ingredients. It never fails to give tone and new vigor to the weakest constitution.

Remember Narcoti-Cure doesn't deprive you of tobacco while effecting a cure; doesn't ask you to buy several bottles to be entitled to a guarantee; doesn't require a month's tratment; and finall, doesn't enable you to stop tobacco only to find yourself a slave to the habit of tablet chewing.

With Narcoti-Cure, when you are through with tobacco you are through with the remedy. One bottle cures.

HUNTINGTON, Mass. Mar. 18, 1895.
The Narcoti Chemical Co.,
Springfield, Mass.

Gentlemen:—I have used tobacco for over twenty-five years, chewing and smoking every day from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m. stopping only for meals.

On Monday, February 4, I called at your office in Springfield, and bought a bottle the Cure which I used as directed and on the tenth day the desire for tobacco had left me and has not returned. I did not lose a meal while taking the Cure. My appetite has improved and I consider Narcoti-Cure a grand thing.

Very respectfully,
CHAS. I. LINCOLN.

Mr. Frank H. Morton, of Chicopee Falls, Mass. late Inspector of Public Buildings for Massachusetts, says:

I used tobacco for twenty-five years, and was a confirmed smoker. In just eight days' treatment with Narcoti-Cure I was through with tobacco, in fact the desire vanished like a dream.

Very Respectfully,
FRANK H. MORTON.

If your druggist is unable to give full particulars about Narcoti Cure, send to us for Book of Particulars free, or send $5 for bottle by mail.

GRADUATION DAY.

Next to the wedding day and the day of death, two events that stand out prominently in life's history, graduation day is recognized as important. From every college and from every institution of learning all over the land, this glad month of June, with its sunshine and fragrance, is dedicated the pleasing task of graduating exercises, and filled with hope and inspired by lofty ambition, a new generation stands upon the threshold of active life, equipped in a measure to meet its grave responsibilities.

As the young people pass out from the school life, to be lost or recognized, in the scramble that is constantly going on all about them, it is well to remember that the school room is but one of many preparatory methods, and that the graduate is the exception, and not the rule.

A large percentage of the young men of Janesville, as well as all other cities, lack the advantages of even a high school graduation. From the shop and the store, in the factory and on the street, the aveneus of active life throng with young men and young women whose knowledge of books is limited, and whose education is confined to the environments about them. Deplorable as these conditions may be, they exist as stubborn facts. Recognizing these conditions, the thought is very naturally suggested, that with the advantages of school and the diploma in evidence, comes increased responsibility; and if appreciated, and rightly used, a richer endownment. The world has a right to expect more of the man or woman who enters the race of life mentally equipped, and yet disappointment often results; not because of the equipment, but because in the struggle, the proper channels for success and usefulness have not been selected with care and good judgment.

The old saying "There's always room at the top," is as true today as it ever was, and the front rank in every avenue of work is never crowded, but every channel from the first effort, to defeat or success, is alive with busy competitors for place and position. The reason why so few, comparatively, succeed, is not for lack of energy, or a disposition to work, but it is because of misdirected energy and lack of adaptability for the work in hand. To this fact and not to dishonesty is largely due the failures in business, and the failures in life. The best service ever rendered by parents, teacher or friend, to any young man or young woman, who stands diploma in hand, looking out anxiously into the future, undecided as to the best channel to enter, is the service of counsel and advice, which results in the right choice.

If the boy has genius and mercantile skill, don't put him in a law office or a theological school. If he takes naturally to business and mechanical life don't let him waste his time on mechanics. If he has a bent for a profession, advise him to gain a college education.

Help the girls by suggestion and advice, to choose some avocation to which they are the best adapted. If they take to music, keep them out of the school room. If they possess tact, and the natural ability to impart instruction, advise them to teach. If they have good homes and are content to enter the broad but important field of housekeeping and home making, their chances for happiness and the crowning success of womanhood may be found in the home circle.

To the graduates of the Janesville high school, The Gazette expresses a popular sentiment in saying: Start right in life, and the chances for success are greater than the chances for failure. May you all win the prizes that sooner or later come in the way of every life.

Shortness of Time.

We all of us complain of the shortness of time, and yet have much more than we know what to do with. Our lives are spent either in doing nothing at all, or in doing nothing to the purpose, or in doing nothing that we ought to do. We are always complaining that our days are few, and acting as though there would be no end of them.

COURT HOUSE ANNEX WILL NOT BE BUILT

BUILDING COMMITTEE ARE SAT DOWN UPON.

The Proposition Did Not Meet With Favor at the County Board Meeting Today and the Report Was Rejected—City Can Pay License Money In Installments.

There will be no annex built on the north end of the court house as recommended by the committee on buildings. They submitted their report to the county board this morning and a motion was made to adopt the report but it was defeated by a vote of 10 ayes to 22 nays. The board was in session all day. Register of Deeds Rowe was allowed $300 on his abstract contract; and the request of the common council of Janesville, asking the county to accept the license money due, one half this year and the balance next year, was by motion of Supervisor More, adopted.

Trustee Merrill, of the insane board, asked for $3,000 to tide over expenses until November. Circuit Court Clerk Goldin submitted a communication calling for more room in his office for records; and Supervisor Bailey, of the building committee, submitted a report showing expenditures of his committee.

Supervisor Wilder, by resolution, desired an explanation of the increased expense for fuel at the county asylum and poor house, and on his motion the matter will be investigated by a special committee.

The question of bringing a suit to collect the insurance on the county buildings destroyed in Johnstown was being discused at 3:30 o'clock, and and will probably conclude its work and adjourn this evening.

ALUMNI ELECT NEW OFFICERS.

Miss Gertrude Zeininger Made President—Change in The Constitution,

There was a good attendance at the annual meeting of the Janesville High School Alumni Association this morning and the session was held in the Jefferson building, Mrs. Hugh Menzies presiding. The constitution was amended, providing for the holding of the annual meeting the first Tuesday in June. This change gives the officers ample time to straighten out their reports and prepare better plans for their annual banquet. Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows:

President—Miss Gertrude Zeininger.
Vice President—Mrs. T. S. Nolan.
Secretary—Miss Mary Davies.
Treasurer—Miss E. May Clark.

The class of '95 was well represented at this meeting and the association now has nearly two hundred members.

Alumni Banuet This Evening.

The Alumni Association will hold their annual reunion and banquet this evening at Concordia hall. The members of the association have put forth extra efforts to make the reunion this year an especially notable one. Addresses and toasts will form the literary part of the program and the banquet will be the best ever given. Many of the older members of the association are expected to be present, and the program will be as follows:

THE OLD GAS MAIN IS TOO SMALL

Milwaukee Avenue Pipe Too Small to Fill the Requirements.

Since the gas stoves have become popular, more gas is being used than ever before. The two and one-half inch pipe on Milwaukee avenue, that has been plenty large enough for some time past is now found to be too small and workmen began the removal of the pipe this morning. They will lay a four-inch main in its place, and it is also the intention of the company to continue the pipe out as far as Dr. Whiting's residence.

RATIFY THE COMMITTEE'S REPORT

Both Cotton Mills Will Soon Be Running Full Force.

As announced in The Gazette last evening, the cotton factory strike is at an end, and both mills will be running on Monday with a full force. The employes of the two factories held a meeting in Central labor hall last evening for the purpose of hearing the report of the special committee appointed to confer with Manager Heller, of the cotton company. The meeting was largely attended, and continued in session for some time discussing the situation. Eventually the agreement made by the committee with Manager Heller, that the employes in both factories return to work under the old schedule of wages, was approved, and in accordance with this action the lower factory at Monterey, put on a full force this morning, and on Monday morning the upper factory will also start up with a full force.

TO GIVE LOCAL BICYCLE RACES.

Arrangements Are Now Being Made For A Series of Meets.

A series of bicycle race-matinees will be held at the fair grounds on Friday afternoon, at about 6 o'clock to be held under the auspices of the Arrow Cycling club. A small fee of admittance will be charged but no definite time has been set for the first meeting. Superintendent Proudfoot will run the street cars to the grounds and as the races will be held in the cool of the evening and at a time when people can get away from their business, they will doubtless be largely attended.

CAN OF GASOLINE EXPLODED

Mrs. Michael Minnehan Was Seriously Burned Yesterday Afternoon.

A gasoline explosion took place yesterday afternoon, at the Lincoln street home of Mrs. Michael Minnehan, and Mrs. Minnehan was seriously burned. A can filled with the oil was left standing near the stove and an explosion followed, throwing the burning oil in all directions. The house at once caught fire but was soon put out, while Mrs. Minnehan was burned about the hands and feet.

OVER 250 TELEPHONES IN USE

Dr. J. B. Whiting and Peter Champion went to Madison this afternoon, to witness the university boat race which takes place this evening at 7 o'clock. A Literary Estimate.

It is estimated that over 1,000,000 new novels have been written by different authors, and placed before the reading public of the world within the past five years. Out of this number only about one-eighth have met with a successful sale. The number of disappointed literary people of the world are not a few; but we don't pretend to write novels, its hard for us these days to even get them to read over. Our fifty cent on the dollar of the factory cost shoe sale brings us a large trade, and as people find we do just as we advertise to do, they will be ever ready to come again. Becker & Woodruff.

Aerial Apparatus Not Necessary.

You might have had to get a step ladder to reach the mercury those hot days last week and you may have to use a balloon to catch it at all before the summer is over, but it is not necessary to use any appliance of the kind to reach the prices on our clothing. Those $7.50 single and double breasted serge suits cannot be excelled. We can give you a suit for more money, but those $7.50 suits we think you will be particularly interested in. One inspection will insure us a sale. Frank H. Baack.

SAY THE ELECTION IS NULL AND VOID

CLINTON SALOON MEN ALLEGED IRREGULARITIES.

Attorney J. L. Mahoney, In Their Behalf Begins a Suit On Similar Lines to the One In Which Janesville Was Interested, But With More Likelihood of Success, They Say.

MR. and Mrs. D. P. Smith left for Chicago last evening.

Low license men in the village of Clinton sprung a surprise on the people of that place this afternoon by commencing proceedings in the circuit court to set aside the special election held last September, fixing the license at $500. Attorney J. L. Mahoney, of this city, has been employed by the saloon men to take charge of the case in court and it will be presented to Judge Bennett under a writ of certiorari.

"The Clinton people have a much stronger case than was brought up here last winter," said Attorney Mahoney, when he filed his papers with Clerk Goldin of the circuit court. "I am confident we will win this time, and that the special election will be set aside."

As the grounds for bringing the suit, irregularties, almost identical with those claimed here, are alleged and these will be shown up in much stronger form.

The high license people as well as many of the strictly temperance people of Clinton, will doubtless be surprised that there is a possibility of setting aside their verdict, and allowing the saloon men to secure their license at the old fee of $200, as they were all quietly resting in ease, supposing the result of the election was final.

HOUSEHOLD MATTERS.

Soap and Water For the Complexion—Dinner Table Hints.

A writer on hygiene says that the trouble with many women's complexions is that the skin does not get exercise enough. Here is some advice, briefly given: Take a tonic every morning in the shape of a cool sponge bath, followed by a vigorous rubbing with a dry towel, not too coarse, the face and neck receiving their full share of the friction. This sets the blood to moving briskly and electrifies the system. Take a warm bath at bedtime and wash the face slowly, carefully and thoroughly with warm water and fine soap. The oily matter exuding from the skin catches minute particles of dust, which cannot be removed in any other way, and many eruptions are caused by neglect of this precaution. After this wholesome cleansing dip the face into a basin of clear, cold water, and the skin will be left firm and healthy.

At dinner the bread is no longer placed upon the plates before the guests enter, but is passed by the servant while the soup is being served. If the soup is distributed before dinner is announced, the napkin is placed at the left of the plate, upon the menu. At the left is also the fork, while at the right are the knife, resting upon a crystal or silver support, the spoon and the oyster fork, if oysters form a part of the repast. Where the soup is served at table the guest finds his napkin in his plate. The menu card has his name written on the back and is placed on its face to serve as guest card. At a recent fashionable French dinner there was no menu at all and no dessert, which is an innovation worth acclimatizing.

A sketch is given of a summer visiting toilet. The godet skirt is of broche silk in violet and maize and has about the foot a bias band of maize bengaline embroidered with multicolored beads and spangles. The blouse bodice is of maize gauze, gathered under a corselet of violet bengaline ornamented with decorative buttons. The short cape is composed of two pelerines, the lower of black lace, the upper of violet gauze, with a violet gauze boa trimmed with roses and having long ends. The hat is of black lace, ornamented with black plumes and roses. JUDIC CHOLLET.

Persons who are subject to diarrhœa will find a speedy cure in De Witt's Colic and Cholera cure. Use no other. It is the best that can be made or that money can procure. It leaves the system in natural condition after its use. We sell it. C. D. Stevens.

Surely Entrenched.

Against disease are those who are prudential enough to renew failing energy by the aid of the grand fortifying agent, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which promotes a vigorous discharge of the duties imposed upon the various organs by nature, and which if impeded or relaxed speedily bring about their disorder. Digestion, assimilation, a due secretion and direction of the bile and a regular habit of body are insured by the systematic use of this safe, prompt and thorough medicine. Chills and fever, bilious remittent, dumb ague and ague cake, kidney complaints, sick headache, nervousness and other inorganic maladies are removed by it. It promotes a relish for the food as well as the ability to digest and assimilate it. The infirmities of declining years are mitigated by it. A wineglassful before retiring promotes health yielding repose.

Thus with all dear thoughts
Making itself common.

Of faces bright and sparkling
That still must somewhere shine,

JUSTICE IN MONACO.

I wish I had leisure to speak at length of this astonishing state, smaller than a French village, but where one finds an absolute sovereign, bishops, an army of Jesuits and divinity students more numerous than that of the prince, an artillery the ordnance of which is almost rifled, an etiquette more elaborate than that of the late Louis XIV, principles of government more despotic than those of William of Prussia, and, in addition to all this, a magnificent toleration for the vices of humanity.

On the other hand, let us salute this virtuous peacefully disposed king, who, fearing neither invasions nor revolutions, rules tranquilly over his happy little people in the midst of a court ceremonial, in which is preserved intact the tradition of four reverences, 26 hand kissings and all the forms observed in a bygone era in the presence of great rulers.

This monarch, above everything, is neither bloodthirsty nor revengeful, and when he banishes—for he does banish—the sentence is carried out with infinite tact.

Is it necessary to produce proofs of this?

A pigheaded gambler, after a day of bad luck, insulted the sovereign. He was expelled from the country by royal decree.

For a month he roamed around the forbidden paradise, fearing the flaming sword of the archangel in the shape of a gendarme's saber. Finally he one day plucked up courage, crossed the frontier, gained in 30 seconds the heart of the country and entered the Casino. But suddenly an official stopped him.

"Were you not banished, monsieur?"

"Certainly I was, but I am going back by the next train."

"Oh, in that case it is all right. You can enter, monsieur."

And every week he returned, and on each occasion the same official put to him the same question, which he answered in the same fashion.

But a few years ago a serious and entirely novel case arose in the principality.

A murder had been committed.

A man, a native of Monaco, not one of the transient strangers of whom one meets legions, but a married man, in a moment of passion had killed his wife.

He had killed her without reason, without any extenuating circumstances. This opinion was unanimous throughout the whole principality.

The supreme court met to judge this exceptional case, for never before had murder been committed, and the wretch was condemned to death.

The outraged sovereign signed the death warrant.

It only remained to execute the criminal. But here a difficulty presented itself. The country possessed neither executioner nor guillotine.

What was to be done? On the advice of the foreign minister, the prince entered into negotiations with the French government to obtain the loan of a remover of heads and his apparatus.

Long deliberations in the ministerial office at Paris. Finally they replied and forwarded a minute of expenses for moving the guillotine and for the services of the expert. The total was 16,000 francs.

His majesty of Monaco thought that the affair was going to cost him pretty dear; the murderer assuredly was not worth so much money. Sixteen thousand francs for the neck of a rascal! The devil!

He then preferred the same request to the Italian government. A king, a brother in royalty, would doubtless not prove such a hard bargainer as a republic.

The Italian government sent a minute of expenses which amounted to 12,000 francs.

Twelve thousand francs! Why, it would be necessary to impose a new tax, a tax of 2 francs a head on the inhabitants. That would be enough to stir up unknown troubles in the state.

He contemplated decapitating the ruffian by an ordinary soldier. But the general, on being consulted, was doubtful whether any of his men had had sufficient sword practice to acquit themselves satisfactorily of a task demanding great experience in handling the weapon.

So the prince again convened the supreme court and submitted to them this embarrassing position of affairs.

The court sat a long time without discovering any practical solution. At last the president suggested commuting the death sentence into one of imprisonment for life, and the suggestion was adopted.

But they had no prison. It was necessary to improvise one. A jailer was also commissioned who took charge of the prisoner.

For six months everything went well. The convict slept all day on a mattress in his hut, and his guard did the same on a chair just inside the door facing the passersby.

But the prince is economical—it is his least fault—and requires the details of the smallest expenditures incurred throughout his dominions. Among these were placed before him the items of the disbursements relating to the creation of a new office, the maintenance of the prison, prisoner and jailer. The outlay on the last was a heavy drain on the royal purse.

His face lengthened visibly, and when he considered it might last forever, for the condemned man was still young, he insisted on his minister of justice taking measures to suppress this expense.

The minister held a consultation with the president of the tribunal, and the two agreed that the office of jailer might be abolished. The prisoner, required to guard himself all alone, would not fail to escape, and this would solve the question to the satisfaction of all.

The jailer was thereupon sent back to his family, and one of the under cooks of the palace was simply required to carry, morning and evening, food to the prisoner. But that gentleman made no attempt to recover his liberty.

One day indeed when they had failed to provide him with nourishment he coolly presented himself to claim it, and henceforth it was his custom, in order to save the cook a journey, to come at meal hours and eat with the servants of the palace, with whom he had become friendly.

After breakfast he would take a stroll as far as Monte Carlo. Occasionally he would enter the Casino and risk a few francs at play. When he won, he would treat himself to a good dinner at one of the leading hotels, then he would return to his prison and carefully lock the door from the inside.

He never slept out a single night.

The situation was becoming difficult, not for the condemned man, but for his judges.

Once more the court assembled, and it was decided that they should invite the criminal to depart from the states of Monaco.

On this decision being communicated to him he merely replied:

"I perceive you are joking. Come, now. Why should I go away, I, indeed? I have no means of living. I have no longer any family. What do you wish me to do? I was condemned to death. You didn't execute me. I said nothing. Then I was condemned to imprisonment for life and handed over to a jailer. You deprived me of my jailer. Still I said nothing.

"Now you ask me to get out of the country. No, thank you. I am a prisoner, your prisoner, judged and condemned by you. I am carrying out my punishment faithfully. Here I stop."

The supreme court was dumfounded. The prince flew into a terrible rage and ordered them to act.

They applied themselves diligently to deliberating.

The outcome was it was decided they should offer the prisoner a pension of 600 francs a year to live in another country.

He accepted.

He has bought a little inclosed plot of land within five minutes' walk of the realm of his former sovereign; he lives happily on his estate, cultivating a few vegetables and holding potentates in contempt.—From the French of Guy de Maupassant in Romance.

NOW, THE TIME TO MAKE MONEY.

Last month I cleared, after paying all expenses, $235.38; the month before $186.86 and have at the same time attended to my regular business. I believe anyone, anywhere, can do as well, as I have not a particularly good location and not much experience. When you have an article that every family wants, it is very easy selling it. It seems strange that a good, cheap dish washer was never before placed on the market. With the Perfection, which sells for $5 you can wash and dry the dishes for a family in two minutes, without putting the hands in water. As soon as people see the washer work, they want one, and that is why so much money can be made so quickly. For full particulars address The Perfection Mfg. Co. Station O, Englewood, Ill. I feel convinced that any lady or gentleman, in any location can make $5 to $10 a day, as every family will very soon have a dish washer. Try it and publish your experience for the benefit of others. When occasion demands its use, try De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is cooling to burns, stops pain instantly, cleanses, a perfect healer for scalds or skin eruptions. Always cures piles. C. D. Stevens.

A Business-like Beggar.

They tell a story of an enterprising beggar of Paris who went about with a sign "I am blind" hung around his neck.

"But you are not blind," said a man of whom he asked alms.

"I know that," said the beggar. "But the man whose business I bought was. He used to make ten francs a day on this route with this sign. I bought him out. Pray help a poor blind man a little, sir."—Harper's Round Table.

Comparatively Harmless.

Mr. Straitlace — Well, Maude, I'm sure I don't know what to say about your going to the matinee. I'm afraid the influence of the theater is demoralizing. What is the play?

Maude—It's a western drama, pa—"Dare-Devil Dave, the Terror of the Rockies"—full of fights and gambling and murders.

Mr. Straitlace (reassured)—Oh! that's all right, then. I was afraid it might be an English society drama.—Puck.

A Fling at Poets.

If I had a girl with golden hair,
And teeth of exquisite pearl,
And eyes that were gems, resplendent, rare,
Do you know what I'd do with that girl?
I'd carry the beautiful, precious thing
Right down to a jeweler's place
And I'd sell her quick for what she'd bring
As an ornament to her race.

DYSPEPSIA AND GENERAL DEBILITY.

REV. A. H. MEVS.

Rev. A. H. Mevs, of Friar's Point, Coahoma Co., Mississippi, writes: "Having suffered for a number of years with dyspepsia, torpid liver and general debility, and having tried several physicians with little or no benefit, I resolved, as a last resort, to consult your specialists at the World's Dispensary. Being advised by them to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, I did so, and after using several bottles, I feel entirely restored to health. Now, I take great pleasure in recommending your medicines to suffering humanity everywhere."

WHY NOT YOU?

NAPOLEON,

ONCE ASKED FOR AN OPINION,

Gives a Graphic Description of His Ideal Woman. Mothers Please Note.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

In response to a question asked by a lady, the great Napoleon replied, —

"My ideal woman is not the beautiful-featured society belle, whose physician tries in vain to keep her in repair, nor the fragile butterfly of fashion, who gilds the tortures of disease with a forced smile.

"No! my ideal is a woman who has accepted her being as a sacred trust, and who obeys the laws of nature for the preservation of her body and soul.

"Do you know, my knee involuntarily bends in homage when I meet the matron who reaches middle age in complete preservation.

"That woman is rendered beautiful by perfect health, and the stalwart children by her side are her reward. That's my ideal woman."

To grow to ideal womanhood the girlhood should be carefully guarded.

Mothers owe a duty to their daughters that in too many cases is neglected.

Nature has provided a time for purification; and if the channels are obstructed the entire system is poisoned, and misery comes.

At a mothers' meeting the wife of a noted New York divine said to her listeners: "Watch carefully your daughters' physical development.

"Mothers should see that Nature is assisted, if necessary, to perform its office, and keep their daughters well informed as to matters concerning themselves."

Irregularities, from whatever cause, are sure indications of organic trouble. With irregularities come disturbance of the stomach and kidneys.

Violent headaches often attack the victim; pains shoot everywhere. Extreme irritability follows quickly, and then utter despondency overwhelms the already over-burdened life. Unless the obstruction is removed at once, your daughter's whole future will be darkened. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will accomplish the work speedily. It is the most effective remedy for irregular or suspended action known.

TORRENS BILL PASSES.

Illinois Legislature Acts on Important Legislation—Overrule a Veto.

Springfield, Ill., June 14.—The fight for the Torrens land transfer system, which has waged in the legislature for six years, came to a successfeel termination yesterday when the house passed the senate bill by a vote of 105 yeas to 20 nays. The bill was sent over to the senate at once and the house amendments were concurred in within ten minutes. It is expected Governor Altgeld will sign the measure at once. The senate passed the Lowenthal gas frontage bill by a vote of 33 yeas to 5 nays. It is said the measure will be signed by Governor Altgeld.

Senator Littler called up his revenue bill, and it was passed by a vote of 29 yeas to 4 nays. Senator Wells called up his bill prohibiting the manufacture by convicts of anything that is taken into the mouth, which was vetoed by Governor Altgeld. In the course of a speech advocating the passage of the bill over the veto, Mr. Wells criticised Governor Altgeld's action, and this gave rise to a sharp debate. The vote on the question whether the bill shall be passed regardless of the governor's veto resulted yeas 39, nays 8. The motion prevailed, yeas being more than the constitutional two-thirds necessary to pass a measure over the governor's veto.

The general assembly declined to follow the action of the senate, and refused, by a vote of 86 to 46 to pass the bill over the veto. It would have required 102 votes to carry the bill over the veto. The house passed senate bill 316, which provides for a system of parole among the prisoners in the state penitentiaries.

The senate rejected the report of the special committee appointed to investigate the slop feeding of cattle at distilleries. The senate concurred in the house amendments to the bill fixing the salaries of the members of the general assembly at $1,000 for the regular session and $5 per diem for extra sessions.

The arbitration bill, over which there has been a long and bitter fight in the senate, was finally killed. After much debate a motion was made to recommit the bill to the judiciary committee. This motion prevailed by a vote of 22 to 16, which means the death of the bill. Local option in cities of 15,000 population and less gave the senate some trouble. The Kaiser bill was called up by Senator Berry and after a right stiff fight was landed to the order of third reading—yeas, 27; nays, 14.

A number of minor bills were read a second time in the house and advanced. The general appropriation bill for the expenses of the state government was read a third time and passed.

The senate bill authorizing the commitment of pauper drunkards to Keely institute was defeated in the house.

The senate bill revising the garnishment law of the state was killed in the house. The enacting clause was stricken out.

When the house adjourned it cut off all possibility of the enactment of any race track legislation at this session of the general assembly. It is now too late to report the Humphrey bill back to the house and have it acted upon before the session expires. There can be no legitimate pool selling in Illinois during the next two years.

The house meets at 9 o'clock this morning and will devote the day to the consideration of senate bills on third reading and the reception of conference reports. The general appropriation bill and a number of minor appropriation bills are in conference, but it is thought that the differences between the two houses will be settled without much difficulty.
